

Strategies to Improve Classroom Relationships

A Train-the-Trainer Series

BASED ON THE BEST-SELLING BOOK

In Significant 72: Unleashing the Power of Relationships in Today's Schools, Greg Wolcott builds on John Hattie's groundbreaking research to highlight the transformative impact of teacher-student relationships on student achievement. This practical guide equips educators with actionable strategies to foster trust, connection, and engagement, empowering students to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.

Imagine a training program that transforms the way you understand and foster relationships in schools—one that empowers educators with research-backed insights, practical strategies, and facilitation mastery to drive meaningful change.

This Train-the-Trainers series is designed to equip you with the tools and confidence to become a catalyst for stronger connections across your school community. You will not only learn the principles of effective relationship building but also master the art of engaging adult learners, overcoming resistance, and facilitating growth in others. With ready-to-use materials and a sustainable support network, you'll leave prepared to lead impactful professional development sessions and build a culture of connection that lasts.
